Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

Our relationships often need reconciling and healing. While it is easy to say, it is often difficult to achieve. Sometimes, reconciling requires that we take down the barriers that are sources of division, remove our prejudices, look beyond differences, and see the "sameness" that connects us one to another. Of course, each party has to be willing to do this in order for healing to occur. Our Gospel shows us the healing that can occur when both parties are willing participants.

TO OUR CHURCH FAMILY

A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come to St. Stanislaus Church to worship this weekend. We are grateful to our parishioners and we welcome our guests who visit us this weekend.

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel Jesus' attitude toward the woman may seem somewhat harsh. But the situation that existed at the time of the incident was such that the Jews had a problem with accepting outsiders into their temple. This attitude existed because the Jews felt that they were the only ones deserving of God's favor. The woman in today's gospel knew that she was in an excluded group, but her love and concern for her ailing daughter drove her to challenge the cultural thinking of the Jewish people.

In our times, who do we exclude from our worship space, from our Christian community? The divorced or re-married? The smokers or the overweight? The underdressed? Those whose last names we can't pronounce? Those whose politics we can't accept? Like the woman in the Gospel, all of these are crying out for help. Do we turn them away? Or like Jesus do we include them in our prayers and invite them into our church to pray with us? If we lived in different times would we have been excluded from Jesus' mission and perhaps even the promise of the Kingdom of God and Eternal Life. Aren't we glad He included us among God's people? Shouldn't we follow in His footsteps? All we need is what the Cananite woman had. Faith!

Thank You for a Wonderful Festival !!!

Every year we await our St. Stanislaus Polish Arts Festival for a chance to host and support our Polish heritage and get together with the whole community. I would like to thank God's Providence for a successful festival and that despite somewhat challenging weather, we were able to meet as a community once against this year.

A word of thanks to the Festival Committee, especially Jan Vorndran and Mike Bidzerekowny (Co-chairpersons) for organizing this great event. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the sponsors.

My appreciation goes out to the honorary kitchen director Mrs. Ludwika Kardela and all the volunteers who worked tirelessly for many days in the kitchen making pierogi, gołąbki, preparation of cabbage, baking desserts and all other delicious specialties. My sincere thanks to the teams preparing food: frying potato pancakes, hots & hamburgers, baking desserts and serving drinks.

Thank you to all who came and help set up and take down the booths and lighting as well as help tidy up our property before and after this big event. God bless all the volunteers for their hard work and time devoted to this project. Words of appreciation toward all who were involved with the sale of the raffle tickets prior to and during the festival, as well as money counters and teams in charge of various gaming activities on both days.

Thank you for those who organized tours of our beautiful church, and to all the men and women and especially for our youth for their involvement during this very active time of the festival. I am grateful to all the staff of the parish for their work, time and devotion to this annual event.

Lastly, I would like to thank the team who planted flowers around our church beautifying our property.

I would like invite all of you to the post festival meeting on August 30th, 2017 (Wednesday) @ 6:30 pm in the auditorium. I hope you can find time to share your joys and thoughts of improvement for the festivals in the years to come.

May God Bless you! With loving prayers,

Your Pastor, Fr. Roman

Let us kneel at Mary's feet today and confidently place all our needs and concerns into the hands of our Mother, Mary the Queen of angels and saints, Queen of Heaven and earth.

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, Our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve, To thee do we send up our sighs, Mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, And after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

XX Niedziela Zwykła

Bóg nieustannie gromadzi swój lud, aby na całej ziemi składał Mu ofiarę czystą. On od wieków wybrał naród izraelski i w ciągu dziejów otaczał go swoją opieką. Ale prorok zapowiada, iż Pan obdarzy swymi darami także pogan. Uzdrawienie córki kobiety kananejskiej jest wypełnieniem tych właśnie obietnic oraz zaproszeniem wszystkich ludzi do wspólnoty wierzących w ofiarowane przez Boga zbawienie.

Jezus podziwia wiarę kobiety kananejskiej. Jednak nie można omijać jej beznadziejnej sytuacji. Zapewne wcześniej szukała ratunku u różnych uzdrowicieli. To jest dla niej ostatnia szansa. Kobieta cierpliwie znosi upokorzącą rozmowę także dlatego, że nie ma wyjścia, a bardzo pragnie uzdrowienia swojej córki.

Czyż dzisiejsza Ewangelia mówi nam, że wiara i zbawienie są dla wszystkich? Nie ma lepszych i gorszych, a wszystko zależy jedynie od nas samych. To my decydujemy o naszym życiu i o tym jak w nim postępujemy, a droga do zbawienia nie jest wcale „wyścigiem szczurów”, w którym wygrają najlepsi.

Kiedy wspólnie sprawujemy Eucharystię, sam Pan przeprowadza nas ze śmierci do nowego życia. Stańmy przed Nim w prawdzie i pokorze, a dostąpimy Jego miłosierdzia.

Prayer for Religious Liberty

Almighty God, Father of all nations, for freedom You have set us free in Christ Jesus (Gal 5:1). We praise and bless You for the gift of religious liberty, the foundation of human rights, justice and the common good. Grant to our leaders the wisdom to protect and promote our liberties. By Your grace may we have the courage to defend them, for ourselves and for all those who live in this blessed land. We ask this through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, our patroness, and in the name of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, with Whom You live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Be a Problem Solver and Feed the Hungry!

We face MANY problems in the world! One of them, the significant decline in food donations for the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard. This is ONE problem we CAN SOLVE If everyone brings in ONE box or can of food each week, we will not only FILL the shelves but more importantly fill the needs of those who suffer from the pains of hunger. Some of the most needed foods are: CANNED or FRESH FRUIT, SOUP, PEANUT BUTTER and RICE.

Thank You Very Much

Three out of the eight festival raffle winners, our parishioners – donated their whole winnings back to our church:

- $500 — Mr. & Mrs. Teofil Warzecha
- $500 — Mrs. Stefania Wnuk
- $500 — Mr. Philip Torti

Thank You
