Live the Liturgy
 Inspiration for the Week

As we gather today to reaffirm our faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, we are reminded that we are also the Body of Christ. The Mission of the Gospel calls us to be Christ for others. There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost and feeling lonely, marginalized and oppressed, victimized and abused. Every time we receive the Body and Blood of Christ, we are asked to become what we eat. Are we willing to step aside from our preoccupations and concerns so that we can be Christ for others?

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Question: What are the "fruits" of the Holy Communion?

Answer: The Eucharist, like all Sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our Faith Journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this Sacrament. It is essential to the life of the Church, to each member of the Church. Without it, there is no Church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life. The Fruits of the Holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the Sacrament. These Fruits of the Holy Communion are discussed in the Catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is Union with Christ. We become one with Him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with Him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The Church Community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

On this Feast of Corpus Christi, we hear the account of the Last Supper. This was Passover, an ancient sign of the covenant of Moses. The Hebrew people celebrated God's providential care for His people. To the listening disciples, Jesus makes a very bold claim. "This is My blood of the Covenant." At the time of the first Passover -- the redemption of the Hebrew people from slavery to the Egyptians -- the blood of the sacrificial lamb was spread on the lintels of the doorpost. Tomorrow, some of the disciples would witness the Blood of the New Covenant spread across the wood of the cross. Christ's Body and Blood are more than a sign. They are a Sacrament. In the Sacrament, the sign makes real what it signifies. More than ritual, a Sacrament enacts truth of the covenantal love of God and His promise of fidelity. It's a promise God keeps. The same Bread and Wine of that First Holy Thursday Liturgy becomes -- throughout the centuries and until the end of time -- the very Body and Blood of Christ. On this Feast, we celebrate the unfailing Covenantal Love of our God. As you partake in the Eucharist today, and next Sunday, and the Sunday after that, remember that you receive neither a meaningless sign nor an empty offer. You receive God Himself, as He fulfills His promise to remain with us always.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary moments

What else is there to give when one has already given away Their body and Their life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all they have has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to His passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love He has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every Church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship. If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship. Then, you must ask the question of yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this Feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to His, He can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts but by everyday acts, by everyday people, practicing Everyday Stewardship.

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus — On Friday, June 8th we celebrate the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Christ offered Himself for us. From His wounded side flowed Blood and Water, the fountain of salvation for all, who believe. May His love dwell in our hearts always.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary - On Saturday, June 9th we celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This Feast, originally the Sacred Heart of Mary, is a devotional name used to refer to the interior life of Mary, her joys and sorrows, her virtues and hidden perfections, and, above all, her virginal love for her God, her maternal love for her Son, Jesus, and her compassionate love for all people.

Walter William Ratinski — first Polish American from Rochester killed in France from WWI

100 years ago on June 6, 1918, Walter W. Ratinski was the first Polish American killed in France from Rochester. He was also the first of 2 Marines killed in WWI from Rochester.

On June 6, 2018 members of the community will place a wreath at his grave in the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery at 11 AM. Walter is only 1 of 3 men buried in Rochester. The rest of the over 20 are buried in France.

On Sunday, June 10, members of the Melvin Michalski Post of the American Legion will dedicate his name tag to be placed on the WWI Honor Roll plaque in church during their annual memorial 9am mass at St. Stanislaus.

Please visit our web site for more info about him at: <http://ww1cc.org/polish>

Uroczystość Bożego Ciała

W dniu dzisiejszym, podobnie jak w Wielki Czwartek, wracamy myślą do tych chwil, gdy “Jezus wiedząc, że nadeszła Jego godzina przejścia z tego świata do Ojca, umiłował swych na świecie, do końca ich umiłował.” “A gdy zajął z nimi miejsce u stołu, wziął chleb, odmówił błogosławieństwo, połamał go, i dawał im”.

Wchodzimy dziś do Wieczernika i patrzymy oczyma wiary i miłości, aby – czego rozum nie może pojąć i co wiara osłania tajemnicą - miłość rozjaśniła swoim blaskiem. Jezus, żegnając się ze swoimi uczniami, pozostaje z nimi pod osłoną znaków chleba i wina, zostaje w Eucharystii. Wyznajemy dziś wiarę w Jego obecność w tym Sakramencie, kiedy niesiony w procesji “zagrody nasze widzieć przychodzi”. “Jezus przychodzi, troski nam osłodzi... Padnijmy na kolana, uczcijmy niebios Pana...”

Święto Bożego Ciała zawdzięczamy błogosławionej Juliannie z Cornillon (1193-1258), opatce z klasztoru augustianek w Mont Cornillon koło Liège, która ujrzała jasną tarczę z widoczną ciemną plamą. Pod wpływem tego widzenia miejscowy biskup Robert zarządził świętowanie uroczystości Ciała i Krwi Chrystusa dla diecezji Liège. Powiernik i spowiednik Julianny, archidiacon Liège, Jacques Pantaleon z Troyes, późniejszy papież Urban IV, bullą "Transiturus" w roku 1264 ustanowił to święto dla całego Kościoła.

Gratulacje dla Absolwentów

Absolwentom z naszych rodzin chcemy złożyć serdeczne gratulacje z okazji zakończenia pewnego etapu edukacji.

Prosimy podać nazwiska waszych absolwentów do biura parafialnego, abyśmy mogli podać ich imiona w biuletynie i złożyć im gratulacje.

”Czuwajmy, aby nie skamieniały nam sserca, aby miłość rodziła błogosławione owoce czynów w codziennym życiu!”

Mary’s ‘Helping Hands’...

Help Mothers in Poverty Feed Their Families:

Month of May was dedicated to Mary, our Blessed Mother. In honor and thanksgiving to our Lady for her love and care for all, donate food to the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard. Help the mothers in need and living in poverty feed their families.

All foods are GREATLY appreciated. There are some foods which are especially needed: macaroni and tomato sauce, cans of mixed vegetables, beets, collard greens, all kinds of canned fruit, applesauce, and for a special family treat cake mixes and frosting. Even just donating ONE item each week will fill a plate at the table of the poor and a mother will be grateful- especially Mary!

Knights of Columbus Recruitment

The St. Maximilian Kolbe Council of the Knights of Columbus here at St. Stanislaus Kostka Church invites the men of the parish and their families to join us for pizza and wings Tuesday, June 5th at 6:30 PM in the auditorium. Give us the opportunity to show you the benefits of joining this worldwide organization based on Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism and see how it can help you strengthen your faith and become a better Catholic, husband and father. Just as Father McGivney our founder asked men to join him in establishing his mission, so too we are asking you to join us.

Proud of Your Graduate?

At the end of June we will publish in the Parish Bulletin the names of parishioners, their children, or even grandchildren, who are graduating from high school and college this school year.

Please let the parish office know if you or a member of your immediate family is receiving a diploma or a degree. You can call the parish office during the office hours @ 467-3068, stop at the office, or put a note in the collection basket with a name and the name of the school from which they are graduating from. We would like to acknowledge them and their achievement.
