Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

How often do we find ourselves wanting what is not ours? Greed, envy, and even gluttony lead us to a bad end. We live in a world that feels very entitled. Many people believe that wants and needs ought to be provided or simply given to them, without any work or effort. It is easy to feel that we have received the short end of the stick or less than what we deserve. However, feeling shortchanged makes it impossible to walk with gratitude in our hearts and feel a sense of responsibility, the two essential elements of the spiritual life. Are we grateful?

XXVII Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Therefore, I say to you,

the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

The chief priests and elders listening to Jesus must have been furious. After telling the parable about the tenants who abused the owner's property and killed his son, Jesus had a tough lesson to teach. He compared the Jewish leaders to these terrible tenants. They, like the selfish workers in the vineyard, were guilty of not respecting proper authority and of trying to seize control--not of grapes, in this case, but of religious matters. In short, they were not bearing fruit for God's Kingdom, but only for their own prestige and privilege.

Before we spend too much time criticizing them, however, we would do well to examine ourselves. If Jesus were standing in our midst right now, would He have a similar warning for us? We may not be religious leaders, but we are like those tenants in many ways because we have been made stewards of the gifts of God. We receive His help and grace through the Sacraments, for example. Are we good stewards of this Grace, or do we take it for granted and fail to nourish it to produce good fruit?

And what about the personal gifts that God has entrusted to each of us? We all have certain skills, talents, experiences, and opportunities thanks to God's work in our lives. Do we make the most of these things or do we settle for the easy road? Do we thank God for them or consider them to be our own? God has trusted us with a place in the world, HIS world. He is the ultimate authority here and all things we enjoy come from His hands. May we have the humility and gratitude to use His gifts for His Glory and not just our own.

Why Do We Do That?
Catholic Traditions Explained

Question:

Why is the Church against stem cell research, especially if it offers the possibility of cures for diseases like Alzheimer's and Parkinson's?

Answer:

Like so many issues, the truth about stem cell research is more complicated than a few sound bites and vague promises of cures. For the Church, the problem is with embryonic stem cell research, not the research itself. The destruction of human life, even for a seemingly noble cause, is never acceptable. The ends cannot justify the means. Stem cells can be obtained in other ways, including from the placenta as well as from adults. So research is possible without the destruction of other life.

On the other hand, stem cell research shows much promise, but no concrete results. Some scientists also dispute what diseases might be cured by new discoveries. The research is still in its early stages. The question for our country is whether we should invest a lot of money in research now, looking for cures that will probably remain out of reach for most people, or should we invest that money in other programs with more immediate benefits, especially those that stress prevention and education. It is indeed a complex issue that requires close scrutiny and investigation before we jump to inaccurate conclusions or make decisions based on good, but misinformed, intentions.

What Does Our Faith Teach Us About the Eucharist?

Our faith teaches us that what we proclaim in the Eucharist, Christ's Death and Resurrection, is also made present in that very action by the power of God's love and goodness. This is the heart of our faith in the sacrament we call the Eucharist, the holy sacrifice of the Mass, the real presence of Christ.

Fall- Back to School Food Drive!

Now that school is back in session many school age children receive breakfast and lunch at school. But, many times these same children come home to an empty cupboard or refrigerator and often go to bed hungry. Parents are trying to make at least simple meals but struggle to have the needed ingredients.

Your donations of even JUST ONE can, box or bag of food can provide at least something to ease the pain of hunger. The GREATEST NEEDS are: crackers, mustard, ketchup, cooking oil.

Pope Francis Mass intentions for October Workers and the Unemployed

That all workers may receive respect and protection of their rights, and that the unemployed may receive the opportunity to contribute to the common good.

XXVII Niedziela Zwykła

Rozważmy, co dzisiejsza Ewangelia – kolejna już o winnicy – oznacza dla nas? Pan Bóg założył na ziemi szczególną winnicę. Jest nią wspólnota wierzących, Kościół Święty wzniesiony przez Syna Bożego Jezusa Chrystusa. Naszą misją jest troszczenie się o tę winnicę, o kościół. Ona jest dla nas nie tylko miejscem naszego gromadzenia się i spotkań modlitewnych. Jest również miejscem naszej odpowiedzialności za każdego członka wspólnoty. Wszyscy ponosimy za siebie nawzajem odpowiedzialność, bo „Bóg powierzył człowieka człowiekowi”. Tak jak do każdej pracy, tak i do pracy we wspólnocie wierzących, w Winnicy Pańskiej, musimy się świadomie przygotować. Musimy, może nawet z trudem, odkryć, gdzie możemy się przydać z naszymi umiejętnościami i zdolnościami w tym otoczeniu, w którym właśnie jesteśmy, w którym postawił nas Pan. Wszyscy jesteśmy zarządcami Jego dóbr, które zostały nam powierzone i którymi mamy się dzielić. Czyńmy, więc dobro tak długo, jak długo Pan daje na to czas! W przypowieści syna gospodarza pochwycono, zabito i wyrzucono z winnicy. To Syn Boży został tak właśnie pochwycony, wyrzucony z winnicy i zabity, ukrzyżowany „poza” murami Jerozolimy. I tak wypełniło się Słowo Boże. Jednakże właśnie kamień, który odrzucili budujący, stał się głowicą węgła (Mt21, 42). W tym nasza nadzieja, nasza wiara, nasza droga do Królestwa Bożego.

Dzień Pułaskiego w tą Niedzielę

Centrala zaprasza Parafian a także wszystkie Polskie Organizacje do obchodów Dnia Pułaskiego w czasie Mszy Świętej o godzinie 11:00 a.m. w tą Niedzielę, 8-go Października. Po Mszy świętej wszyscy są zaproszeni na Akademię i kawę i ciasto do audytorium po Polskiej Mszy św. Przygotowane przez Polską Szkołę.

Wypominki – Modlitwa za Zmarłych

Miesiąc Listopad jest poświęcony pamięci modlitewnej, za naszych bliskich i drogich nam osób - zmarłych, tych, którzy żyli z nami i razem z nami dźwigali radości i smutki codziennego życia. Koperty na Wypominki były załączone z niedzielными kopertkami. Prosimy je zwrócić do 25-go Października.

Biuro Parafialne Zamknięte w Poniedziałek

Biuro Parafialne będzie zamknięte w Poniedziałek, 9-go października—Columbus Day.

Our Lady of the Rosary

The Battle of Lepanto was a five-hour naval battle between the main fleet of the Ottoman Empire and the fleet of the Holy League, a group of maritime states of southern European Catholic countries. It was fought on October 7, 1571, in the northern waters off the coast of Greece. The Ottoman Empire fleet was defeated by the Holy League.

Pope Pius V knew that the forces of the Holy League were much smaller than the fleet of the Ottoman Empire. Consequently, the Pope called on all of Christian Europe to pray the rosary for success against the Ottomans. He led a rosary procession in Rome for this success. After the defeat of the Ottomans at Lepanto on October 7, he called for a feast day in honor of the defeat and called the day Our Lady of Victory. In 1573, Pope Gregory XIII changed the title of the feast to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary. Then two centuries later Pope Clement XI extended the feast to all the Latin Rite, laid it in the Roman Catholic Calendar of Saints in 1716, and placed it on the first Sunday in October.

When we celebrate Our Lady of the Holy Rosary this Fall, remember all the fallen soldiers of all the wars. Pray for peace and for the reign of Christ to bring all people into right relationships.
