Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

True love does not measure itself against the love of others. If I am truly in love with God there is no need to compare myself with others or succumb to jealousy if others appear closer than I or because I have loved longer. Authentic love does not consider benefits or privileges. It simply desires to be in the presence of the One who is loved. God invites all of His children into a relationship with Him. It does not matter when along our life's journey we accept that invitation. It is only important that we do. In our Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard promised the usual daily wage to everyone, regardless of what time each started working. God promises love and Eternal Life to all who enter into relationship with Him. It does not matter when. This is God's pure merciful gift. It is God's to give as God desires.

XXV Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Are you envious because I am generous?"

The landowner in today's Gospel parable surprised everyone. Contrary to standard practice, he paid all of his laborers the same wage, regardless of how many hours they had worked! Of course this was a very pleasant surprise for those who had begun their job late in the day. And, understandably, it was something of a disappointment for those who had toiled since the morning. From their perspective, they should have gotten more than the others. But in fact the landowner was not cheating anyone; he was simply being especially generous with the latecomers.

This story would have had a special meaning for the Jewish audience listening to Jesus. They, the Chosen People, were the laborers who had started at 9:00 am. They belonged to the group with a long history of worshipping the true God. Non-Jewish Gentiles, on the other hand, had appeared late in the game. Jesus was making the point that just because He would offer the same salvation and mercy to everyone, there should be no reason for the Jews to complain. They had received their promised Messiah; so what if, in God's Mercy, He allowed others who had not waited so long to be saved as well? Divine generosity is not meant to be a cause for jealousy.

Now, we may feel removed from the concerns of those Jews. But the basic lesson remains relevant: that we ought to appreciate God's generosity, even when it reaches to those whom we may not expect God to forgive. Those who have long been faithful, for example, might think they deserve more benefits than sinners who repent late in life. But instead, we should all rejoice to see God's mercy extended to EVERYONE, no matter when they joined the fold.

Why Do We Do That?
Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Who is St. Jerome and why is he so significant that we honored him with a feast on September 30?

Answer: St. Jerome (345-420) was considered the greatest biblical scholar of his day, conversant with Latin, Greek, and Hebrew. He set about translating the books of the Bible from their original languages into Latin. Much of Jerome's correspondence has survived and gives us a powerful glimpse into the kind of person that he was, as well as the time in which he lived. Jerome eventually became Pope Damasus' (366-384) personal secretary.

In the West, Latin was overtaking Greek as the language of the common people. The pope desired a translation of the Bible that would be accurately translated from the original languages into the language and idiom of the people. Previous Latin translations existed, but they were poor in quality.

Jerome set about this task and spent the rest of his life meticulously translating. He is credited with the translation of the Bible known as the Vulgate, a Latin translation intended to address the needs of the common people. That translation became the standard and the only one used by Catholics until modern times. Catholics did not actively engage in a similar process until 1943, when Pius XII allowed Catholic scholars once again to go back to the original languages and translate an accurate and meticulous version of the Bible. We carry on that tradition to this very day.

The Holy Eucharist

♦ How do priests exercise their power to change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ?

Priests exercise their power to change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ by repeating at the Consecration of the Mass the words of Christ: "This is My Body . . . this is the Cup of My Blood."

♦ Why does Christ give us His own Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist?

Christ gives us His own Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist: first, to be offered as a sacrifice commemorating and renewing for all time the sacrifice of the cross; second, to be received by the faithful in Holy Communion; third, to remain ever on our altars as the proof of His love for us, and to be worshipped by us.

Fall- Back to School Food Drive!

Now that school is back in session many school age children receive breakfast and lunch at school. But, many times these same children come home to an empty cupboard or refrigerator and often go to bed hungry. Parents are trying to make at least simple meals but struggle to have the needed ingredients.

Your donations of even JUST ONE can, box or bag of food can provide at least something to ease the pain of hunger. The GREATEST NEEDS are: crackers, mustard, ketchup, cooking oil.

XXV Niedziela Zwykła

W czytanej dzisiaj przypowieści Pana Jezusa o robotnikach w winnicy taką samą zapłatę otrzymuje ten, który pracował cały dzień, i ten, który pracował pół dnia, i ten, który pracował tylko godzinę. Czy to jest sprawiedliwe?

Przypowieść odnosi się do Królestwa Bożego i do ostatecznej nagrody. Tu mamy już zadatek tej nagrody - a jest nią Eucharystia. Temu, który przyjmuje Komunię świętą od ósmego roku życia Jezus ofiaruje całą swoją miłość i całego siebie. Temu, kto się spóźnił i Komunię przyjął przed ślubem, lub w wieku dojrzałym dokonuje prawdziwego nawrócenia, Jezus również ofiaruje całą swoją miłość i całego siebie. Temu, który nawraca się na łożu śmierci Jezus też daje całą swoją miłość i całego siebie. Dając w wielkodusznym akcie przebaczenia umierającemu starcowi siebie i wszystko, co przez Niego się stało, nie może dać więcej temu, co przez całe życie żył z Nim w przyjaźni, bo "więcej" po prostu nie ma.

Październik Miesiąc Modlitwy Różańcowej

Parafianie i goście są zaproszeni do Modlitwy Różańcowej w Październiku. Od Wtorku do Piątku po 5:30 Mszy św. Różaniec i Adoracja Najświętszego Sakramentu.

Święta Teresa od Dzieciątka Jezus

W dniu 1 października, katolicy na całym świecie szanować będą życie św Teresy od Dzieciątka Jezus, lub św Teresy z Lisieux. Święta Teresa została ogłoszona Doktorem Kościoła przez papieża Jana Pawła II w 1997 - 100 lat po jej śmierci w wieku lat 24. Ona jest tylko trzecią kobietą być tak ogłoszoną, po św Katarzynie ze Sieny i św Teresy z Avila. Święta Teresa napisała: "Wiesz dobrze, że Pan Jezus nie patrzy na wielkość naszych działań, ani nawet jak one są trudne, ale na miłość z jaką my je wykonujemy."

Everyday StewardshipRecognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

As everyday stewards, we hope that each of us try to live daily lives of generosity for the glory of God. We hope that we are all working to cultivate characteristics of a good everyday steward so that we can grow in maturity of faith and draw closer to Christ. But if we could accurately see on a magical computer spreadsheet how everyone else around us was living life would it impact how we lived out our stewardship way of life? If we found out that others weren't trying as hard as we were or they were not nearly as generous would it give us reason to pause?

In the workplace, school, and general life, people can easily look around and choose to adapt what they are doing to match more closely what others are doing. Why give work more hours if no one else is willing? Why give a 20% tip to a waiter if you suspect everyone else is only giving 15%? Why spend hours studying for a test when no one else is taking it that seriously?

Our lives of stewardship should never be measured against that of others. Even though we are all called to give all we are and all we have to God, each one of us is unique in our response to that call. Instead of any type of comparison that may temper our generosity, we should hold to the truth that the more we give of ourselves the more fulfilled we will feel. Also, as we grow in our relationship with God, the more we will want to glorify Him. Stewardship is not a competition. It is a call to serve God without counting the cost.
