Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

What can I do to accomplish the works of God? This is a question every Christian must ask. Ultimately, we are asked to be the light of Christ for others. This calls us to be compassionate, forgiving, nonviolent, generous, concerned for the poor, and welcoming to strangers. These are often contrary to what the world values. We are asked to simplify our lives and become less self-focused so that others can share in God's creation. We need help in order to fulfill this tall order. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, which we celebrate today, is the way we are nourished so that we can fulfill this mission.

Everyday Stewardship—Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

As human beings, we seem to have a wide array of insatiable desires. We long for more money, more time, and more stuff. We spend millions of dollars each year on remedies for our overeating. We look to our neighbors to see what they have that we want so we can keep up with them in the race toward happiness. We look for instant gratification only to find that our hunger for whatever it is remains intact. Stewardship is the pathway to curbing all those cravings. On this journey, we let go of things that keep us tied down to this world and tied up in our sin. All that we have becomes instruments for God to use in our lives and the lives of our neighbors. When we have detached from enough in this world, we find out the truth: Nothing on earth can truly satisfy our cravings completely. Jesus Christ is the sole answer for our needs and desires. Although the truth is right in front of us at each and every Mass in the Eucharist, we can easily spend our days in denial of that truth. It takes trust to step out in faith and give it all over to God. We are all called to let go and let God be God. Answering the call is easier said than done. However, if we can finally make that bold move, we will find ourselves completed by the One who was with us all along.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In an on-demand society, it's not always easy to imagine life with less. The crowds of Jesus' day depended on the weather and successful growing seasons for their livelihood. For many of Jesus' listeners, even "food that perishes" would have been a welcome relief. Jesus acknowledges this but tries to draw them deeper. "You are looking for Me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled." For people who have just witnessed a miracle, the response is strangely marked by ingratitude. "What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert." Jesus fed them for one day, but Moses interceded with God for 40 years of bread. "Jesus," they seem to say, "can't You just give us more?"

How often do we behave similarly in the spiritual life? "If I only I had more patience, then I could be kind to her." "I could be welcoming if I was more outgoing, but that's just not me." "I know I'd be a better parent if I just had more time." Like the crowds, we want Jesus to give us more. We always don't want Him to completely shift our paradigm. Perhaps it's not "more patience" we need, but a deeper sense of our own imperfections for a greater sense of empathy. Maybe God is inviting you not to entertain an entire group, but to seek out the quiet person on the fringe. And time may limit you from family engagement, but could God be asking you to reorder your priorities entirely? After all, it wasn't more loaves that the people needed. Jesus is "The Bread of Life," who sustains our most essential needs. This week, are you looking for more or are you looking for God Himself?

Why Do We Do That Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: On August 10, we celebrate St. Lawrence. He was a deacon who valued the true treasures of the church. Can you tell us more about him?

Answer: There is little known about Lawrence other than he was a deacon in Rome during the reign of Emperor Valerian from 253-259. In 258, Valerian began a persecution of the leaders of the Roman Church. Lawrence was in charge of the purse for the church of Rome. Roman officials in need of money demanded that the riches of the church be handed over to them. Lawrence asked for a few days to gather them. Lawrence took the money he had charge over and distributed it to the poor of Rome. Then he gathered all the homeless and the poor together. When the Roman officials came again demanding the riches of the church, Lawrence pointed to the destitute and homeless, saying that these are the true riches of the church. For this he was imprisoned and tortured. Lawrence was put to death by burning on a gridiron. It is said that as he was dying, he told his executioners to turn him over because he was done on one side and needed to be fully cooked for the Lord.

Lawrence continues to be a model for us today. The church needs continual reminders that its riches are the people. The primary purpose and mission of the church is to be continually sensitive to the needs of all God's people, most especially the least of our brothers and sisters.

Repair of the South Transept Window

The top panel of one of the windows in the south transept (Christ in the Temple) has been removed and taken to Pike Studios for repair. The panel will be resealed and an additional reinforcing bar will be installed to ensure that the glass is set securely in the frame. The exterior glass is still in place and will continue to provide protection while the stained glass panel is in the studio.

Julian Brzezinski (1889 - 1918) IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for Julian Brzezinski, who was killed in battle 100 years ago on August 5, 1918, and is buried in France. His name will be placed on the WWI Honor Roll Plaque after the 11:00 Mass this Sunday, August 5.

Marriage Banns

XVIII Niedziela Zwykła

Ludzie z tłumu, których Jezus cudownie nakarmił pięcioma bochenkami chleba, szukali Go, ale nie dlatego, że widzieli znaki, lecz dlatego że jedli chleb do sytości. Nie rozumieli znaku, który Jezus uczynił, by wzbudzić w nich wiarę w Tego, którego Bóg posłał, lecz chcieli darmowego chleba. Wtedy Pan Jezus wypowiada słowa: “Troszcie się nie o ten pokarm, który ginie, ale ten, który trwa na wieki, a który da wam Syn Człowieczy”. Dzisiaj jest tak samo. Wielu szuka i przychodzi do Pana Jezusa, aby zapewnić sobie przemijające dary: zdrowie, powodzenie w różnych sprawach, szczególną opiekę w niebezpieczeństwach... Pan nie odmawia naszym prośbom. Lituje się nad nami i jak nad Jeziorem Galilejskim mnożył chleb, tak dzisiaj pomnaża nad nami swoje błogosławieństwo. Jezus jednak chce, abyśmy szukali u Niego większych darów. On może nas uchronić nie tylko w różnych incydentach, które zdarzają się w życiu człowieka. On może ocalić nasze dusze, całe nasze życie, wprowadzając je w wymiar wieczności. Znaków dokonuje po to, abyśmy uwierzyli, że On ma moc to uczynić. Starajmy się o chleb powszedni, ale jeszcze bardziej trzeba troszczyć się o chleb, który daje nam Ojciec, a jest nim Ten, który z nieba zstępuje i daje życie światu.

Uroczystość Przemienienia Pańskiego

Uroczystość Przemienienia Pańskiego wprowadził papież Kalikst III i jest obchodzone 6-go sierpnia Przemienienie Pana naszego Jezusa Chrystusa. Podczas tego święta obchodzimy Objawienie przez Chrystusa Swojego Bóstwa Apostołom :św. Piotrowi, Janowi i Jakubowi na górze Tabor. Uczniowie byli niezwykle przerażeni, zdziwieni, zachwyceni. Obok Jezusa ukazali się Mojżesz i Elias, jednak żaden z nich nie dorównywał chwale i blaskowi Syna Bożego.

Warto się zastanowić, dlaczego Chrystus wziął na górę Tabor akurat tych, a nie innych Apostołów. Otóż św. Piotr miał utwierdzać innych wierze, a także paść owce i baranki Chrystusa. Św. Jakub był pierwszym, który umarł świadcząc o Chrystusie. Natomiast św. Jan przeżył najdłużej i mógł przekazywać opis tego niezwykłego wydarzenia wielu ludziom. Warunkiem jest to, abyśmy już teraz pamiętali o tym, co dla nas przygotował Bóg, i abyśmy każdego dnia karmili się Jego Słowem i Ciałem. On chce, abyśmy ufnie i wytrwale się do Niego modlili, służyli bliźnim, rozwijając w sobie cnoty.

Returning God's Gifts

“Much will be required of the person entrusted with much and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.” ~Luke 12:15

Jesus would probably consider that most of us living in the United States are among those “entrusted with more.” Compared to other parts of the world, we are extremely well blessed. Just as God “entrusted” us with many blessings, He also trusts that we will use those gifts to do His work here on earth.

It's NO Picnic for the Poor...

Many of us enjoy the summer months with picnics and other gatherings but the poor are praying that they will have food to put on their table. You can help them have an indoor ‘picnic’ by bringing in at least one food item each week.

Here are the foods that the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard needs the most: spaghetti sauce, oatmeal, chicken soup, crackers, juice and canned corn. Extra special food items that would be greatly appreciated are: canned mixed vegetables, boxes of mashed potatoes, canned fruit, jelly, macaroni, canned ravioli and tuna fish. CEREAL is ALWAYS tops on the list! FYI, the Dollar Tree has many of these items, especially juice.

Dear God

Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight.

Thank You for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season. Draw me closer to You this summer.

Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing.

Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.

As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You. Amen.
