Prayer of Thanksgiving for Freedom

Freedom is enshrined in our US Constitution. The First Amendment of our Constitution protects our freedom of speech. However, our speech may not infringe upon another's freedom. Freedom does have its limits. And we must protect everyone's freedoms, not just ours. On this 4th of July, let us remember from whom all our freedoms originate, our good and gracious God. Let us pray...

God, Giver of all good gifts,
Help us to be thankful for rest and food,
and remember that, in all we do or say,
You are with us, here this day.

We are thankful for all You do and for everything You have given us.
But above all we are thankful for our freedoms
and the ability to protect others' freedom.

We are free because of You.

We ask for Your continued blessing on all Your creation.

Through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in His image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. Reach out and share your faith with someone this week so that they can receive God's life-changing embrace.

Catholic Quotes

“Freedom consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought.”

- St. John Paul II

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel offers a rare framework -- a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are standalone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on His way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on His journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch His cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl. Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story -- the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl -- and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning. Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply staunch the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. This process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the Words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that He wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear His calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in Peace."

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained

Question: There seems to be a lot of division in some Christian Churches over moral issues, especially abortion, ordination, and end-of-life care. If all Christians follow the Gospel of Jesus, why is there such a difference of opinion?

Answer: There is always a struggle between culture and religion, and part of that struggle is politics. To be politically correct means that you must embrace the secular virtue of the moment so that you are "enlightened," "sensitive," "aware," and, most importantly, "open-minded." Unfortunately, common sense can be sacrificed in the race to be "PC." Some factions within Christian denominations have tried to redefine tradition, history, and biblical teaching to bend it around the politically correct religious thinking of the day. On the life issues that you mention, there are those who began with their own conclusions and have tried to bend theology around their conclusions. This is possible in part because of a lack of a central teaching authority and partly because society has become apathetic to these issues. It will result in a lot of division, factions, and schisms. The Gospel calls all believers to embrace the truth, to turn from sin, and to seek holiness and justice. No matter how hard some may try, a square peg will not fit a round hole. The camel cannot fit through the eye of the needle.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

As the baptized, we are called into community, and we are strongest when all members have full faith in Jesus Christ. When one of us falters or begins to doubt his or her faith, that is when our faith is to be shared freely as a source of strength. If we hold our faith inside, then those around us will miss a chance to be edified and strengthened by our witness.

We can give freely of our money, our time, and our talents but still not share our faith with those around us. This hinders the Body of Christ's ability to evangelize and spread the Good News. It also helps to keep members of that Body weak, because without the chance to hear our stories of faith, those with the need to hear can remain discouraged and lost.

Faith is a gift from God to us, just like any other. We are called to cultivate our faith and grow it into abundance. If we do not share it with others, then why grow it at all? We are not saved because we have more faith than someone else. We are no better off with storage bins filled with knowledge, devotion, and faith experience than a baby on its day of baptism. The difference between the baby and us is that we have something now to share and the responsibility to do so.

XIII Niedziela Zwykła

Chrystus Pan pozostaje z nami ciągle i rzeczywiście, ale pod osłoną znaków. Pozostaje z nami w swoim słowie, niosącym orędzie zbawienia, pozostaje w sakramencie Eucharystii. Znaki sakramentalne: woda, wino, chleb, s³owa i gesty to tylko jakby szaty, poprzez które możemy dotknąć samego Chrystusa. Trzeba tylko naprawdę wierzyć, że On jest pośród nas obecny, że mówi do nas i czyni nadal wielkie znaki “Bóg nie uczynił śmierci i nie cieszy się ze zguby żyjących”.

Dlatego Chrystus, Bóg-Człowiek, patrząc na wiarę ludzi, nieustannie zwycięża cierpienie i śmierć, aby ukazać, że On jest Panem życia, Bogiem żyjącym i samym życiem. Człowiek został stworzony dla nieśmiertelności, dlatego ciągle upodobniając się do Jezusa, ma obfitować w wiarę, łaskę i miłość, aby osiągnąć cel swej wędrówki – wieczne zbawienie.

It’s NO Picnic for the Poor...

Many of us enjoy the summer months with picnics and other gatherings but the poor are praying that they will have food to put on their table. You can help them have an indoor ‘picnic’ by bringing in at least one food item each week.

Here are the foods that the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard needs the most: spaghetti sauce, oatmeal, chicken soup, crackers, juice and canned corn. Extra special food items that would be greatly appreciated are: canned mixed vegetables, boxes of mashed potatoes, canned fruit, jelly, macaroni, canned ravioli and tuna fish. CEREAL is ALWAYS tops on the list! FYI, the Dollar Tree has many of these items, especially juice.

Festival News

We finished making 14,200 cheese pierogi to serve at the 2018 St Stanislaus Polish Arts Festival on 8/03 and 8/04. Please mark on your calendars these dates and plan on joining us. The Polish ladies made 900 potato pierogi to sell frozen by the dozen. If you want to buy the cheese pierogi, they are available at the rectory for $8/dozen. Please buy your raffle tickets and support our annual fund raiser. Also, Cecylia Tryt won the first early bird of $75.....Congratulation!
