Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Living the Gospel does not require much. In fact, less is sometimes more. Simple gestures or random acts of kindness can have unimaginable results and change lives. It is easy to believe that we do not have what it takes to make a difference, but we do! The key is to learn how to be grateful for the little gifts you possess and share them freely and abundantly. It does not take much to satisfy the hungers of the human heart or mend the wounds of sorrow and pain. All we need to know is that God is with us. All people need to know is that we are with them. God provides the rest. Truly be present to those you meet this week and offer them your most precious gift, the gift of yourself.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

In our daily lives, we find ourselves wanting many things. We desire outcomes and good fortunes that we think will make all the difference. However, oftentimes when we receive these things, we only find ourselves wanting more. Worse yet, if we do not get them, we can see our lives as incomplete. God always provides what we need. It may not be what we want. Our eyes can deceive us into believing that what we receive is not enough to fulfill us. If we trust in God and seek to only live with what sustains us rather than dive into excess, we will find that we are happier, healthier, and at peace. No one should ever make himself or herself feel overcome by too much of anything. God knows what we need even if we cannot see it for ourselves.

Pope's Prayer Intention for August

Universal: The treasure of families. That any far-reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever wanted to be part of something bigger? Even the most independent among us likes to make changes and have an impact on others. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus demonstrates one of His most iconic miracles -- the multiplication of the loaves. It is a sign of the institution of the Eucharist, when we are fed not by bread but by the Body of Christ.

In the stories of ancient pagan gods, mighty deeds were done entirely under the gods' own power. Mortals may have offered sacrifices to start the chain of events, but they played little role in the miraculous works themselves. Jesus is entirely different. The multiplication of the loaves is a prime example not only of Jesus' power over nature, but of the way He equips His disciples.

First, Jesus asks Philip a question "to test him." Jesus has seen the crowds and "He himself knew what He was going to do," but He wants His disciples to start thinking about the problem and its solution. Andrew offers a suggestion, though he isn't confident in it. "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus honors Andrew's suggestion, takes the offered loaves, and delegates the Apostles to bring order to the crowd. When the crowd has been fed, the Apostles "gather the fragments left over." In the process, they discover with wonder that bread has been produced in super abundance.

In the sacraments, God works through simple matter to make grace real in our lives. He works in and through us as well. Are you facing problems that could have spiritual solutions? Is there a need in your parish or community that you could meet? Whatever our hesitations, Jesus honors our simple loaves and fishes. He invites us to participate in His generous work of redemption, just as we are.

Why Do We Do That
Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: What is the difference between mortal and venial sin?

Answer: Sin is a deliberate thought, word, action, or omission contrary to God's law. Since the beginnings of the Church, sin has been distinguished by its gravity. "Grave matter" is traditionally defined by the Ten Commandments. If a person commits a grave sin with full knowledge of the action's evil and with the complete consent of their will, this is a mortal sin. The effects of mortal sin are grave -- the loss of sanctifying grace, which can be restored by a fresh outpouring of God's mercy in the sacrament of Reconciliation.

Venial sin does not fit one or more of these conditions (for example, a less serious matter still freely chosen or grave matter committed while under force or ignorance of God's law). The effects of venial sin -- while still damaging to the human heart and human society -- are less severe. Even so, smaller sins build habits, which can obstruct our growth in virtue. When we are serious about following Jesus, we should do our best to avoid all sin, whether large or small!

XVII Niedziela Zwykła

W Ewangelii św. Jana, mnożenie przez Jezusa chleba i ryb jest przedstawiony jako znak jego władzy i boskości. Jezus interpretuje sens i znaczenie tego cudu jako dzielenie się Jego Ciałem i Krwią. W wielu ważnych dziedzinach, Ewangelia Jana używa cudu rozmnożenia chleba i ryb, aby uczyć o Eucharystii. Jan uczy nas, że za każdym razem, gdy sprawujemy Eucharystię, jesteśmy przewidzianym wieczną ucztę nieba. Nasze słowo Eucharystia pochodzi z języka greckiego i opisuje działania: "Dziękować".

W Eucharystii jesteśmy karmieni przez samego Jezusa, i jesteśmy posłani, aby służyć innym. Ewangelia Jana zauważa szczególnie, że chleb, jest jęczmienny i jest pokarmem ubogich. To przypomina nam, że Bóg nas karmi i pielęgnuje, spełniający nasze potrzeby fizyczne, jak również nasze duchowe. W Eucharystii, jesteśmy posłani, aby służyć najbardziej z nas.

A Summer Blessing

Go now, and know that the Spirit of Jesus will be watching over you. Go now, enjoy God's summer gifts of warm sun, cooling waters, and long, light evenings. Go now, with the gift of faith, that you might see God's hand in all your work and play. Go now, with the gift of hope that you might offer love and care to all you meet. Go now; with the gift of knowledge, remembering all that you have learned with God's help, live it. Go now, with these Words of Jesus in your heart – "I will not leave you alone; I am with you always." Go now, in peace.

It's NO Picnic for the Poor...

Many of us enjoy the summer months with picnics and other gatherings but the poor are praying that they will have food to put on their table. You can help them have an indoor 'picnic' by bringing in at least one food item each week.

Here are the foods that the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard needs the most: spaghetti sauce, oatmeal, chicken soup, crackers, juice and canned corn. Extra special food items that would be greatly appreciated are: canned mixed vegetables, boxes of mashed potatoes, canned fruit, jelly, macaroni, canned ravioli and tuna fish. CEREAL is ALWAYS tops on the list! FYI, the Dollar Tree has many of these items, especially juice.

Julian Brzezinski (1889 - 1918)
IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for Julian Brzezinski, who was killed in battle 100 years ago on August 5, 1918, and is buried in France. His name will be placed on the WWI Honor Roll Plaque after the 11:00 Mass on Sunday, August 5.
