Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Are we content and satisfied with the bare minimum and essentials of our faith, or do we desire excellence and proficiency? The Ten Commandments represent the minimum and, if we are honest with ourselves, are pretty easy to keep. The fullness of the Gospel, however, is another story. Truly living as Jesus taught often comes with great self-sacrifice, self-emptying, and possibly leaving the things of this world behind. Are we ready to pursue this kind of life? God wants us to live and love abundantly not superficially. Love asks that we extend ourselves beyond the status quo and the bare minimum and venture into that which is risky, countercultural, and even radical. What we possess can no longer be important. When Jesus laid this out before the rich young man, he went away sad because he had much. When Jesus lays it out before us, how do we react?

XXVIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

Christian author C.S. Lewis once wrote that Christianity is not so much about being nice people but in being "new men." We see this contrast in today's Gospel. "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit Eternal Life?" Jesus first answers in the predictable way. Follow the commandments! "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Perhaps for some of us it's easy to answer this way. "I'm a good person!" he seems to reply. Does he truly follow all the commandments he professes to follow? Does he -- in word and deed -- check off all the boxes of the moral law? Perhaps. Whether he's being honest or fudging the truth, Jesus accepts his answer at face value with compassion. "Jesus, looking at him, loved him."

But He's not done yet! Jesus wants to remind us that this attitude alone is not enough. "Go, sell what you have then come, follow Me." Jesus' invitation to the young man is radical. Abandon everything that gives you any sense of security. Give it all up for an unknown future with a wandering preacher. The Christian life is not easy. "How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!" It's easier, Jesus says, for a gigantic camel to squeeze itself through a tiny needle's eye. But the God of the universe creates out of nothing, breaks the bars of hell, and raises the dead to life. Is a needle's eye really such an obstacle? Jesus' invitation is always bigger than our own limitations. This week, what do we need to offer up? How is Jesus inviting us to follow Him?

Respect Life Events:

10/15/18 — Jim Havens of Catholic Radio's "Love Will End Abortion"

10/22/18 — Dorina Hayes "My Story of Abortion and Healing"

10/29/18 — Deacon Bruno Petruskas "End of Life – Planning Ahead"

All presentations are in the church from 6:30 p.m. – 7:45 p.m.

ChristLife at St. Stanislaus

At Mass we hear the Word, "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord." Wherever we go we are called to bring the Good News of Christ, to be His apostles.

How do we do this? Certainly by our example, but also with our words. For most of us this doesn't come easy in our times. ChristLife teaches us how we can be apostles. There will be a preliminary meeting for all interested on Wednesday, October 24th at 6:30 p.m. in the auditorium. All are welcome!

World Mission Sunday Next Weekend

Next weekend, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers, and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Ladies Society Meeting

Ladies Society meeting will be held this Sunday, October 14th, after the 9:00 a.m. Mass. The meeting will be in the Bingo room, next to the auditorium.

XXVIII Niedziela Zwykła

Pan zaprasza nas w każdą niedzielę na spotkanie z Nim. Kieruje do nas swoje słowo, które jest żywe, skuteczne, ostrzejsze niż wszelki miecz obosieczny, zdolne osądzić pragnienia i myśli serca. Pan nas zaprosił i On mówi do nas. Wyjdźmy naprzeciw Pana.

“Nauczycielu dobry, co mam czynić, aby osiągnąć życie wieczne?” Pytanie młodzieńca z Ewangelii i my zadajemy bardzo często. Jak żyć, co wybrać? Mądrość, ubóstwo, bogactwo, władzę? Wsłuchajmy się w słowo Pana, bo w nim znajdziemy odpowiedź.

ChristLife

W czasie mszy słyszymy słowa “Idź i głosz ewangelię” Gdziekolwiek jesteśmy naszym katolickim obowiązkiem jest głoszenie słowa Bożego, aby być apostołami Chrystusowymi. W jaki sposób możemy to zrobić? Oczywiście przez nasz przykład życia, ale również poprzez nasze słowa. Dla większości z nas w obecnych czasach to nie przychodzi tak łatwo. ChristLife angażuje nas w jaki sposób stać się uczniami Jezusa. Spotkanie informacyjne odbędzie się w środę 24 października o 18:30 w audytorium. Serdecznie zapraszamy.

Parish Council Meeting

Celebrate the 185th Anniversary of the SSNDs!

In 1854, the School Sisters of Notre Dame came to serve the children at St. Joseph's Orphanage and German immigrant children. That mission soon extended to other parishes. At present, the sisters continue to serve at Bishop Kearney High School, the Notre Dame Learning Center, and Most Holy Name of Jesus Parish. Through their educational ministries and their subsequent work in numerous parishes, the Sisters have touched the lives of hundreds of thousands of children and their families. Please join the Sisters as they celebrate 185 years of their foundation and 165 years of work in the Diocese of Rochester on October 28 at 1:30 p.m. at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Bishop Salvatore R. Matano will officiate at the liturgy.

Feeding the Hungry

Dear Jesus, You said that Your Flesh and Blood were real food and real drink and those who consumed it would have Eternal Life.

But before You gave Your Flesh for the life of the world,
You fed thousands with small amounts of bread and fish.

Before You fed our souls, You fed our bodies.

Before our Eternal Life, we must live in this life.

Help us, Lord, to see You in the hungry of our world.

Inspire us to feed not only the souls of the needy,
but their bodies as well. Amen.
