If you have given in the past, we look forward to your support again. By supporting CMA you support many programs throughout the diocese like food and clothing for families in need, seminarians and spreading the message of the Gospel. We need everyone's help in attaining the goal for this Parish.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

As a disciple, an extremely important question must always take precedence in decision making. What does God want me to do? In discerning answers to life's questions and difficulties, it doesn't matter what humans permit or even what popular choice dictates. It is what God says that matters. God's Will is often dismissed, even by those who claim to believe in Him. We discern God's Will by developing a strong and mature prayer life, listening to Scripture and Church teaching, consulting Church tradition, paying attention to the rhythms of life, and seeking His Presence in all we experience and observe. As Jesus realized in His final hours, it is "not My Will but Yours be done." Are we ready to follow His example and give ourselves over to what God wants?

XXVII Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever does not accept the Kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." This verse is part of a beautiful reflection on childlike faith. We're reminded of the innocence of children, how eager they are to experience life and how quick they are to trust. Rarely do we hear it with the story that immediately proceeds it. The Pharisees question Jesus on the lawfulness of divorce! Hardly the sort of thorny moral conversation one typically has in front of children. Yet here we are.

Jesus' response goes further back than the Mosaic law.

"From the beginning, God made them male and female, the two shall become one flesh, what God has joined together, no human being must separate." Jesus cites a particular set of passages from Genesis 1 and 2, before the Fall in Genesis 3. Adam and Eve possessed original innocence. How eager they were to encounter one another and to explore the garden! How immediate their initial trust in God. We no longer live in Eden. As we age in our fallen world, our childlike trust is wounded and betrayed. We become hardened to the beauties of life. We're quick to find a way around difficult moments.

In brief, things become complicated as we lose our innocence. The teachings of Christ and the Church on sexuality become more challenging or more objectionable. Jesus recognizes this in today's Gospel. His invitation is not to compromise with our broken reality. It is a return to beauty, to the fullness of life as it was meant to be. We can affirm our trust in God. We can view life with gratitude. We can experience healing of our lost innocence. This is possible today -- now! -- by grace. Indeed, "the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

ChristLife at St. Stanislaus

At Mass we hear the Word, "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord." Wherever we go we are called to bring the Good News of Christ, to be His apostles.

How do we do this? Certainly by our example, but also with our words. For most of us this doesn't come easy in our times. ChristLife teaches us how we can be apostles. There will be a preliminary meeting for all interested on Wednesday, October 24th at 6:30 p.m. in the auditorium. All are welcome!

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained

Question: What is the story behind the rosary?

Answer: The rosary is a sacred and popular Catholic devotion, but its origins are mysterious. Prayer beads to facilitate meditation began in the early ages of the Church. A tradition has developed that the rosary in its current form was given to St. Dominic by the Blessed Mother. However, the earliest biographies of the saint do not include this story. In the Middle Ages, the prayers were grouped into 50 Hail Marys with verses from the Psalms and vignettes from the lives of Jesus and Mary. By the 16th century, the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries were established. The rosary rose to prominence in the late 1500s. The Turkish Empire was spreading across Eastern Europe and pirates were raiding Christian ships. The Christian nations of Europe rallied for a great battle at sea. Pope St. Pius V urged all Christians to pray the rosary for victory. While vastly outnumbered, the Christian fleet was victorious at the Battle of Lepanto. The pope established October 7th as the Feast of the Holy Rosary. Later, all of October would come to be known as the Month of the Rosary.

XXVII Niedziela Zwykła

Jezus Chrystus będąc Synem oga, nas także wprowadza w synostwo Boże i dlatego nie waha się nas nazwać swoimi braćmi. “Tak bowiem ten, który uświęca, jak i ci którzy mają być uświęceni z jednego są wszyscy” (Hbr 2,11).

Eucharystia jest ofiarą Ucztą przy jednym stole, gdzie On sam jest Gospodarzem. Odpowiadając na Jego zaproszenie uczynimy wszystko, co leży w naszej mocy, aby jak najowocniej przeżyć nasze z Nim spotkanie. W odwiecznych planach Bożych małżeństwo i rodzina, ustanowione już na początku z woli Bożej, mają czynić ludzkie życie na ziemi lżejszym i piękniejszym. Ta więź między mężem i żoną jest jedyna i nierozdzielna. Przypomina o tym Chrystus w rozmowie z faryzeuszami, którzy przewrotnie próbowali interpretować Boży zamiar.

ChristLife

W czasie mszy słyszymy słowa “Idź i głosz ewangelię” Gdziekolwiek jesteśmy naszym katolickim obowiązkiem jest głoszenie słowa Bożego, aby być apostołami Chrystusowymi. W jaki sposób możemy to zrobić? Oczywiście przez nasz przykład życia, ale również poprzez nasze słowa. Dla większości z nas w obecnych czasach to nie przychodzi tak łatwo. ChristLife angażuje nas w jaki sposób stać się uczniami Jezusa. Spotkanie informacyjne odbędzie się w środę 24 października o 18:30 w audytorium. Serdecznie zapraszamy.
