Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Making straight the path of Christ is not only the vocation of John the Baptist but of every baptized believer. God desires to lead us with His Mercy and Justice. These are essentials in God's Kingdom and some of the gifts Christ's future coming will bring. But our world's systems do not place emphasis on these values. Wanting greater profits, downsizing companies in order to reduce expenses, using others for personal or corporate gain, and valuing institutions over people are just a few of the "values" we encounter every day. We are called to straighten the path to Christ. In a world that places value on things that are counter to our call, how do we respond? We need to learn to discern what is of real value and then take the risk of bringing it into the marketplace.

Welcome!

A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come to St. Stanislaus Church to worship this Sunday. We are grateful to our parishioners and we welcome our guests who visit us this weekend.

• Coffee Hour after the Masses

St. John of the Cross

December 14th is the feast of mystic, poet, and reformer, St. John of the Cross. St. Teresa of Avila enlisted his assistance in reforming the Carmelite order. His time in prison resulted in some of the greatest mystical poetry the Church has seen. After his escape, his efforts were recognized and honored by the Carmelites. While he was appointed to the highest office in his order, dissension forced him into solitude again. Following Christ isn't always easy, nor will it always be received well by everyone around us. John of the Cross teaches us that these challenges can be opportunities to unite ourselves closer to Jesus.

Our Lady of Guadalupe

When Mary appeared to Juan Diego as Our Lady of Guadalupe, she had encouraging words for him. "Am I not here, I who am Your Mother?" In the image on Juan Diego's tilma (tunic), Mary identifies herself with the Aztec people. She has their hair and features, their symbolic maternity dress. She incorporated their important symbols of the sun, moon, and stars. Today's Mass includes two Gospel options. Both are familiar passages from the Gospel of Luke - the Annunciation and the Visitation. Both are equally relevant to today's feast because Mary's yes to Christ isn't only to care for Him but to come to us. Our Lady of Guadalupe is pregnant. The image bears witness to Mary's yes to conceive the Savior of the World. Now Mother to all the world, Mary comes to the aid of her children, reminding them of her presence among them.

2nd Sunday of Advent

John the Baptist received quite a prelude in this Sunday's Gospel, as Luke described the religious and political leadership of the time period. Scripture is divinely inspired, and we believe that everything that made it into the Bible is there for a reason. These lines remind us of an important truth. The Christmas story isn't a fairy tale or nursery rhyme. It's not a parable we say to give meaning to the holiday. At Christmas, God's presence is made tangible in a precise moment in time. The birth of Christ is a historical event. As precursor to Jesus' preaching, the ministry of John the Baptist is also a historical event. "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths." John's call to repentance and the forgiveness of sins happened in a particular time and place. But that does not mean it is limited to first century Palestine! God continues to move in our daily lives. What we hear in today's Gospel - and what we anticipate at Christmas - occurs in our daily lives. God works in concrete ways in time and space. He did that 2,000 years ago, and He continues to do so today!

This Sunday, examine your own Christmas preparations. Is there anything you need to repent of before the Christmas season? Are there low points in your life, valleys to "be filled" by the love of God? Are their mountainous obstacles in your spiritual life? How can they be "made low"? Are you making decisions that have moved you away from God? This Advent season is the time for them to "be made straight and made smooth." Prepare the way in your heart for Christ today!

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained

Question: On many Sundays, especially during Advent and Lent, we hear a reading from one of the prophets. What is significant about them for us? Didn't Jesus fulfill all their predictions? Answer: Lent and Advent are the times of the church year when the prophetic word forms an important part of the Liturgical season. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch, and Zephaniah are just some of the prophets who offer powerful and essential lessons for Christians of any era. Prophets do not predict the future. They are very much concerned about the present, calling Israel to follow once again the word of God. The prophets witness to a life of faith. In the midst of an intense relationship with God, the prophets are very aware of their unworthiness to embrace this call from God and struggle to accept the mission God entrusts to them.

The prophets speak on behalf of God. Each testifies that the word spoken is not from them but from God. At times, this lands them in trouble with their audience. Jeremiah, for example, felt betrayed by God as the prophetic message was delivered. People did not like the message because of their sin-filled lives, and their displeasure was taken out on the prophet. While tempted at times to "throw in the towel," the prophets remained true to the life of faith and persevered in the proclamation of God's word. In modeling these virtues and calling us to greater fidelity, the prophets offer an example and message that are still important to us today.

Christmas Flowers

In the December envelope pocket a Christmas Flower offering was included. The Christmas Flower Collection helps us to purchase flowers to decorate our Church for Christmas Liturgies. Please return the envelopes with your Sunday collection or to the parish office during business hours.

Have You Mailed your CMA Pledge Yet?

II Niedziela Adwentu "Przygotujcie drogę Panu, Prostujcie ścieżki dla Niego! Każda dolina niech będzie wypełniona, każda góra i pagórek zrównane, drogi kręte niech się staną prostymi, a wyboiste drogami gładkimi".

Słowa św. Jana są wprost idealne. Skoro Bóg przychodzi, to dobrze jest się na Jego spotkanie przygotować. Dobrze jest wyprostować swoje życie, by mógł przyjść czym prędzej. Powyjaśniać, to co w relacjach z najbliższymi powinno być powyjaśniane. Rozwiązać wszystko to, co w sumieniu jest pogmatwane. Pozałatwiać niezałatwione sprawy w swoim sercu, by było ono czyste na Boże Narodzenie.

Wydaje się trudne? Może i jest. No ale cóż... po prostej drodze szybciej dojedzie się do celu.

Jezus przychodzi, jest to nieodwołalne. Jest już blisko. Jeśli wierzy się posłannictwu Jana, to trzeba coś zrobić ze swoim życiem. A jeśli się nie chce nic z nim robić, to pytanie czy tak naprawdę się wierzy...

Modlitwa na Adwent

Wszechmogący Boże, spraw, abyśmy przez dobre uczynki przygotowali się na spotkanie przychodzącego Chrystusa, a w dniu sądu, zaliczeni do Jego wybranych, mogli posiąść Królestwo niebieskie.

Charitable Contributions

for Your Financial Planning

We are very grateful for all your contributions, no matter how large or small. The year 2018 is coming to an end and soon we will have to file our taxes. Contributions to the church are tax deductible. Many people choose to make year-end gifts and donations. Please consider the charitable contribution to St. Stanislaus Kostka Church as part of your financial planning. This is something that will benefit both the church and the donor. To take the advantage of the tax write off for 2018, the contributions have to be made by December 31, 2018. Thank you for your consideration and generosity always.
