Live the Liturgy

St. Theresa of Avila reminds us that, "Christ has no body now on earth but yours; no hands but yours; no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ must look out on the world. Yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which He is to bless His people." We are, in every way shape and form, the Body of Christ. Our bodies are not just one single part but many. We are many, and we are all uniquely different. Yet each in his or her own way contributes significantly to the whole. We are all baptized in one spirit, and there are no distinctions that separate us. We must keep our eyes focused on the greater whole and not get distracted or consumed with particular parts. Everything and everyone must work together for the praise and glory of God.

HUMILITY
is the MOTHER of all the VIRTUES.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up." Did you grow up in a small town? Whenever you see stories of tight-knit communities, a common refrain is that everybody knows everybody and that's very difficult to change. If you leave and return, people expect you to be and act a certain way, and it's strange for them if you do not. In today's Gospel, we see that Jesus was already moving "in the Power of the Spirit and news of Him spread throughout the whole region. He...was praised by all." His ministry has begun! News of His growing popularity must have proceeded Him to Nazareth.

Upon His arrival, He "went according to His custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day." For the first few moments, He is what they expect - their hometown boy returning to pay His respects. As was common of men at the time, He takes a turn reading a passage of Sacred Scripture. It is a bold passage, one He selects intentionally. "He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me." After reading about holy anointings, liberation for the poor and prisoners, and physical healings, Jesus does the unthinkable. "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

We are all called to imitate Christ wherever we are. This might mean doing the unexpected! All too often we're content with the daily status quo, and so are the people around us. When we take a stand for Christian values, change our lifestyle to reflect the Gospel, and work for justice in society, we may make others uncomfortable. But Jesus doesn't call us to the same life we lived yesterday or the year before that. He is calling all of us - each and every one of us - to deeper conversion of heart. No matter what other people expect, will you love in the Spirit of the Lord today?

Why Do We Do That?Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: This month, we had the March for Life and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. What does the Church have to say about having respectful conversations between people who disagree?

Answer: Christians are not removed from the world and its conflicts. Indeed, Jesus sends us "to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). Due to the complex nature of the human experience, the pressures of cultures that don't share Christian values, and the difficulty of living the Gospel, even people of good will have conflicts! The Church has disagreements within herself. This has been the case from the beginning. In the letters of Paul, we see him writing to churches who disagree on how to best live the Gospel in everyday life. And different teachers went to cities after Paul and sometimes preached conflicting messages on who Jesus was.

When we encounter people who disagree with us - on topics large and small - we must remember basic Christian values. Respect and compassion are critically important. We need to be good listeners to grasp another person's perspective. This dialogue doesn't mean we compromise our values or deny the truth. We may still disagree, but our conversation can be a lot more civil if we try to understand each other!

"Grace is nothing else but a certain beginning of glory in us."
-- St. Thomas Aquinas

About World Day for Consecrated Life

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world.

So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church. World Day for Consecrated Life is celebrated on February 2nd however, it is observed in parishes on the Sunday after February 2nd. In 2019, this day is celebrated in parishes on February 2-3.

We would like to acknowledge and thank an anonymous donor of $1,000 to our church in honor of Sonja Stenclik. It is greatly appreciated!
We thank you!

Trzecia Niedziela Zwykła

Tradycja Jubileuszowa stanowi ramy dla Bożej obietnicy zbawienia. A jednak Jezus zaczyna coś nowego. Jezus nie tylko ogłasza zbawienie Boże, On przynosi to zbawienie swoją osobą. Jezus jest napełniony Duchem Bożym. Królestwo Boże jest teraz już w zasięgu Jego ręki. Królestwo Boże jest obecne w Jezusie, w Jego życiu, śmierci i zmartwychwstania.

Jezus zesłał Ducha Świętego aby Królestwo Boże może być spełnione. Duch Święty jest darem Jezusa dla Kościoła. Duch Święty umożliwia Kościołowi, aby kontynuować misję Jezusa. Kiedy robimy to, co Jezus czynił - niósł dobrą nowinę ubogim, więźniom wolność, uzdrowienie chorym, a wolność uciśnionych - służymy Królestwu Bożemu.

Światowy Dzień Życia Konsekwowanego

W dniu 2 lutego obchodzimy Światowy Dzień Życia Konsekwowanego ustanowiony przez Św. Jana Pawła II w 1997 roku. Niech nasze modlitwy obejmą również tych, którzy swój dar życia poświęcili Bogu.

Wykaz Donacji dla Kościoła

Wykaz donacji dla kościoła za rok 2018, będzie wysłany przez pocztę przy końcu miesiąca do każdej rodziny należącej do naszego kościoła. Dziękujemy bardzo za wasze ofiary.

It's Cold Outside so....Warm the ‘Insides’ of Those in Need!

Most organizations donate food to those in need ONLY during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Then, typically after this time, donations to the Food Cupboard drop dramatically! Hunger never ‘takes a holiday’! Help provide the ‘fuel’ for the bodies of those in need with food this winter. This month the foods most in need are: CEREAL. Canned Pork and Beans, Baked Beans, Collard Greens, Rice, SOUPS and Hot Cocoa Mix, Tea and Coffee. Always remember that if EVERYONE (including children) brought in JUST ONE FOOD ITEM each week we would feed hundreds of people.

Upcoming Event: Spaghetti Dinner on February 16

Mark your calendars for our annual Spaghetti Dinner sponsored by the Social Concerns Committee which will be on Saturday, February 16, 2019.

Thoughts on Volunteering

If you have some time on your hands and looking for something to do, why not try volunteering.

- ◆ It gets you out of the house
- ◆ It allows you to see that others are in need
- ◆ You can meet some really nice people, like you, that enjoy helping others
- ◆ Experience that wonderful feeling you get when you help others
- ◆ New friendships are formed and the joy continues.
- ◆ It doesn't take a lot of time, it can be just an hour or two a week, to make a difference. Imagine the possibilities!

Year-End Statements for 2018

In late January, letters will be mailed to each family in the parish indicating their record of contributions for the 2018 calendar year. Thank you!
